NOTES TO COACHES/ATHLETES

I. AWARD PRESENTATION

Per the OHSAA, Individual/Relay Awards will be presented immediately following the conclusion of each individual/relay event at the award stand.

Please advise your athletes of this procedure.

II. NO TEAM CAMPS WITHIN TRACK OR FOOTBALL STADIUM

All Team camps will be set up outside the fence behind the track stands on the south end of the facility along the walking path. No team camps should be set up along the fence of the track or in the bleachers of the track stadium.

III. NO ELECTRONIC DEVICES WITHIN TRACK OR AT FIELD EVENT VENUES

Coaches will be able to use video technology in their designated coaching areas.

IV. ¼" or ⅛" SPIKES ONLY INCLUDING STARTING BLOCKS

Starting blocks will be available for use, but you are welcome to bring your own. Block holders will be provided for each race requiring starting blocks.

V. THE FOOTBALL STADIUM TURF MAY BE USED FOR WARM-UPS

This area will be monitored and only competing athletes and coaches will have access to the turf.

VI. NO TAPE PERMITTED ON TRACK AND RUNWAYS

Athletes are permitted to use chalk on the runways and the high jump apron and relays may use half cut tennis balls to mark exchange zones (not provided).

VII. COACHING BOXES

Coaches that have a valid wristband will have access to their respective coaching boxes. One coach per team will be granted access to each event's box.

VIII. CONCESSIONS

Concessions and OHSAA Regional Shirts will be available for purchase. The concession stand will accept cash and credit cards.

IX. QUALIFICATION TO STATE MEET

The top 4 individuals and relays in every event will qualify to next weeks State Championship Track Meet. In all events, 5th and 6th will be considered for at large bids based on their performances.

X. BATONS FOR RELAYS

Batons will be provided for all teams participating in a relay event. Teams will not be permitted to use their own batons. Batons will then be collected after every relay race.
